S. BOLTON & CO.'S Entire Stock of Dry Goods

AT ADAMS & CO.'S PRICES.

The coming week will see the continuation of our great combination sale, including our own great stock and the entire stock of S. BOLTON & CO., contained in his six buildings, which are all added to our premises.

CARD.

Owing to the overwhelming rush of the past week many mistakes and disappointments must have occurred. It was impossible for us to wait with satisfaction on every one who visited our stores, and we take this method of apologizing for our failure in this direction and for any mistakes that may have occurred. The great success attending the sale is the best evidence that it has met popular approval. During the coming week all departments will be, we hope, in complete working order, and with the many new additions of the Bolton stock which will be daily added no doubt may be had but that every customer will receive due and proper attention, and the same marvellous bargains will be forthcoming. Below we give a summary showing the difference in our prices as compared with Bolton's.
